

I am writing to request that you maintain controls on the ownership of media. The proposed legislation contributes to centralization of power which means, among other outcomes, abuse of power. Diversity of information management, macro as well as minimal, is limiting to the welfare of the people. When are we going to learn that big-ness is better than the small segments of the country?